Numb. 5965

The London Gazette.

Published by Authority.

From Saturday June 17. to Tuesday June 20. 1721.

Paris, June 25.

THE Duke de Maine being reconciled with the Court, is reſtored to his former Employments of Great Maſter of the Artillery, and Collonel of the Swiſs, but that of Superintendant of the King's Education which he had likewiſe heretofore, remains to the Duke of Bourbon. It is generally believed he will be re-eſtabliſhed very ſoon in all his Honours and Prerogatives of Prince of the Blood. The Apartments which this Prince had formerly at the Arſenal are fitting up for him with all Diligence. On the 22d Inſtant a Council of Regency was held, wherein M. D'Armenonville Secretary of State, made his Report of the Memorial the Duke de la Force preſented lately to the King; but it was reſolved unanimouſly that this Memorial ſhould be rejected, and the Petitioner obliged to take his Tryal before the Parliament, which will now go on with their Proceſs againſt him. The ſame Day there was a Ball at the Opera, preceded by a Concert of Muſick for the Diverſion of the Turkiſh Ambaſſadour; and the Day following, being the Eve of the Feſtival of St. John the Baptiſt, there were Fire-works as uſual at the Place of the Greve, which that Ambaſſadour ſaw likewiſe from the Town-Houſe, where he was magnificently entertained by the Magiſtrates of this City. Madam de Rohan, Abbeſs of Jouare, and Siſter to the Cardinal of that Name, died ſome Days ago, the King has given that Abbey to Madam de Rohan, Niece to the Deceaſed. Madam de St. Conteſt, Mother to M. de St. Conteſt, one of the King's Plenipotentiaries at Cambray, died alſo laſt Week. There is a Report that the King has asked for a Cardinal's Cap for M. de Villeroy Archbiſhop of Lyons. Some Advices from Rome ſay, that the Pope had reſolved to eſtabliſh a Congregation for examining whether the late Pope's Conſtitution ought to have been received, and whether thoſe of the Clergy of France, who refuſed it, had a Right ſo to do. M. Holzendorff, Secretary to Collonel Stanhope, arrived here laſt Night from Madrid, and proceeded a few Hours after on his Journey to England.

Whitehall, June 20. On Friday Night, the 16th Inſtant, arrived from Madrid Mr. Holzendorff, Secretary to Collonel Stanhope His Majeſty's Ambaſſadour Extraordinary and Plenipotentiary at the Court of Spain, with the Treaty of Peace and Commerce ſigned between His Majeſty and the Catholick King: And Yeſterday an Expreſs arrived from Madrid, who has brought to the Marqueſs de Pozzobueno, Miniſter Plenipotentiary of the King of Spain, Orders to deliver His Catholick Majeſty's Cedulas, authorizing the South-Sea Company to carry on their Trade with New-Spain as before the War.

The Scheme of a Lottery for 700,000 l. propoſed to be raiſed on the Credit of the Duty on Malt for the Year 1721.

70,000 Tickets to be iſſued at 10 l. per Ticket, is 700,000 l.

The Diſtribution of Prizes and Blanks.

N° of Prizes.	Value of each Prize.	Total Value.
1	as Firſt drawn	500 l.
1	of 10,000 l.	10,000
2	of 5,000	10,000
2	of 3,000	6,000
3	of 2,000	6,000
20	of 1,000	20,000
30	of 500	15,000
150	of 100	15,000
400	of 50	20,000
6,390	of 20	127,800
1	as Laſt drawn	1,000
Total Prizes 7,000		231,300
Total Blanks 63,000	at 8 l. each	504,000
Total 70,000	Total Principal to be repaid	735,300

This Advance of 35,300 l. is in Lieu of Intereſt for the firſt Year.

The Blanks are to be paid off firſt, and afterwards the Prizes in Courſe.

The Courſes of Payment to be ſettled by a Second Drawing of 1000 Tickets in a Courſe, as uſual.

The Duty on Malt, 1721. to be appropriated for Payment thereof: And if any Deficiency appears at Michaelmas, 1722. ſuch Deficiency to be Transferred to the Firſt Supplies to be granted the next Seſſions of Parliament.

The Money ariſing from that Duty to be paid by the Exchequer Weekly to the Bank; and by them applied to the paying the Blanks and Prizes in Courſe, as faſt as it ariſes.

Such of the Blanks and Prizes, as ſhall not be paid off on or before 24 June, 1722. to carry Intereſt from that Time, at 4 l. per Centum per Annum, till paid off.

By this Method the Whole may be paid off in little more than a Years time.

And as only 2 l. can be loſt on a Blank, the Riſque to the Adventurers is leſs than in the late Lotteries.